

Orange Moon Nights

Why so seri'us, just trying to live, why, because I refuse to live in'a lie, refuse to die

So why, so seri'us, just where's the playground, because it's conspiracy, so conspicuous, kill it,

You think you hurt, I don't say, take time, let my actions rid it, should you know your bliss, comes at others price

Extreme, life's expensive, every dime you have to spend to live it, but try to plant it

Been around the block a few many times, refuse to be in'a box, cold times make the coldest rhymes

Winter in February, summer on the other side of the planet, Roadmap 2000 and 11

So why, so seri'us, just trying to live, breed few, live through, them, happy home, sun off the trees

Could finish this with a'thousand words, but it's the simplistic things, matter, iPod makes your music ideal, cure to hunger, a meal,

Mother, brother, sister, - father, friend, lover, I end this with hope and truth, because what the world needs is you.

Peace, Love, Respect
